Accessibility

The Getty Villa is ADA accessible to all visitors.

Wheelchairs are available without charge on a first-come, first-served basis in the Entry Pavilion.

Resources for the Hearing Impaired

Assisted listening devices are available for the Orientation Theater. Multimedia tour transcriptions are available at the GettyGuide Desk. Sign-language interpretation is available ten days in advance by calling 310-440-7300 or 310-440-7305 TTY. Open captioning in English is provided for the Museum Theater film and for videos throughout the galleries.

Service Animals, such as a guide dog for the blind, are welcome at the Getty Villa.

All Restrooms include accessible facilities.

Children

Standard strollers are permitted in the galleries and are available without charge on a first-come, first-served basis in the Entry Pavilion. Child-carrying backpacks are not allowed in the galleries.

Baby bottles are allowed in the galleries; no other food or beverages are permitted.

Family restrooms, equipped with diaper-changing facilities, breastfeeding area and a private facility in which you can assist a companion, are located adjacent to the Museum Store and at the tour bus drop-off area. Most Getty Villa public restrooms have diaper-changing tables.

Where to Eat

The Cafe serves casual Mediterranean fare and offers both indoor and outdoor seating. Menu items feature organic, locally grown produce wherever possible.

Where to Shop

The Museum Store at the Getty Villa offers an extensive selection of books and merchandise reflecting classical antiquity, the beauty of the Getty Villa site and its antiquities collection, and changing exhibitions. Look for books about mythology, the art and culture of the ancient world, and gardens and herbs. Find inspired gifts like gardening kits, art supplies, unique jewelry, elegant apparel, tableware and home accessories, notecards and journals, and books and toys for children that are both fun and educational.

The J. Paul Getty Trust is an international cultural and philanthropic institution devoted to the visual arts that includes the J. Paul Getty Museum, the Getty Research Institute, the Getty Conservation Institute, and the Getty Foundation. The J. Paul Getty Trust and Getty programs serve a varied audience from two locations: the Getty Center in Los Angeles and the Getty Villa in Malibu.

The J. Paul Getty Museum collects Greek and Roman antiquities, European paintings, drawings, manuscripts, sculpture and decorative arts to 1900, as well as photographs from around the world to the present day. The Museum's mission is to display and interpret its collections, and present important loan exhibitions and publications for the enjoyment and education of visitors locally and internationally. This is supported by an active program of research, conservation, and public programs that seek to deepen our knowledge of and connection to works of art.

Visiting the Getty Villa

The Getty Villa is open Wednesday through Monday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. It is closed Tuesdays, Thanksgiving, December 25 (Christmas Day), and January 1. Admission to the Getty Villa is always free, but a ticket is required for admission. Tickets can be ordered in advance, or on the day of your visit, at www.getty.edu/visit or at (310) 440-7300. Parking is $15 per car, but reduced to $10 after 3 p.m. Groups of 15 or more must make reservations by phone. For more information, call (310) 440-7300 (English or Spanish); (310) 440-7305 (TTY line for the deaf or hearing impaired). The Getty Villa is at 17985 Pacific Coast Highway, Pacific Palisades, California. Same-day parking at both Museum locations (Getty Center and Getty Villa) is available for $15 through the Getty's Pay Once, Park Twice program.
