ILLUMINATE YOUR HOLIDAYS AT THE GETTY CENTER

Getty offers festive Saturday evenings during the holidays

Saturday nights, November 28, 2015–January 2, 2016
At the J. Paul Getty Museum, Getty Center

LOS ANGELES—Once again, the Getty Center comes alive with festive holiday lights on Saturday nights this season, from November 28, 2015, through January 2, 2016.

The Getty Museum stays open until 9:00 p.m. on Saturday evenings, creating the perfect opportunity to illuminate the holidays. Beginning November 28, visitors can sip complimentary mulled cider as they take in the twinkling lights of the city, and visit The Edible Monument: the Art of Food for Festivals, and Eat, Drink and Be Merry: Food in the Middle Ages and Renaissance.

And opening on December 15, just in time for the holidays, Woven Gold: Tapestries of Louis XIV, features colorful and glittering tapestries that evoke the brilliance of the Sun King's court.

While you're enjoying the holiday spirit, don't miss the chance to visit the Getty Store for meaningful gifts for everyone on your list. Special items, sure to illuminate anyone's holiday, include books, educational toys, silk scarves designed from the museum's collection, and delicate jewelry.

Because the Getty Center is open late, Saturdays offer a perfect opportunity to take advantage of the Getty's Pay Once, Park Twice program, offering same-day parking at both the Getty Center and the Getty Villa for one $15 fee. Simply get a "Pay Once, Park Twice" coupon at the Museum Information Desk at the Getty Villa during the day, and present it at the Getty Center in the evening.

Admission to the Getty is always free. Parking is $15; $10 after 4:00 p.m. For more information visit www.getty.edu/visit or call (310) 440-7300.

The J. Paul Getty Trust is an international cultural and philanthropic institution devoted to the visual arts that includes the J. Paul Getty Museum, the Getty Research Institute, the Getty Conservation Institute, and the Getty Foundation. The J. Paul Getty Trust and Getty programs serve a varied audience from two locations: the Getty Center in Los Angeles and the Getty Villa in Pacific Palisades.

The J. Paul Getty Museum collects Greek and Roman antiquities, European paintings, drawings, manuscripts, sculpture and decorative arts to 1900, as well as photographs from around the world to the present day. The Museum's mission is to display and interpret its collections, and present important loan exhibitions and publications for the enjoyment and education of visitors locally and internationally. This is supported by an active program of research, conservation, and public programs that seek to deepen our knowledge of and connection to works of art.

Visiting the Getty Center

The Getty Center is open Tuesday through Friday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. It is closed Monday and most major holidays, but will be open Mondays December 21 and 28. Admission to the Getty Center is always free. Parking is $15 per car, but reduced to $10 after 4 p.m. No reservation is required for parking or general admission. Reservations are required for event seating and groups of 15 or more. Please call (310) 440-7300 (English or Spanish) for reservations and information. The TTY line for callers who are deaf or hearing impaired is (310) 440-7305. The Getty Center is at 1200 Getty Center Drive, Los Angeles, California.
