Each evening will also include gourmet boxed dinners, dessert items, and drinks available for purchase at the Café.

Chef Fernando Cayanan has created a Mediterranean menu to set the stage for Iphigenia in Aulis—co-produced by the Court Theatre in Chicago, directed by Charles Newell, and translated by Nicholas Rudall. The menu will be presented Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings September 7–30, 2017.

Braised Beef Short Ribs

The sit-down dinner menu, served Friday and Saturday evenings in the Private Founders Room, begins with a grilled octopus and potato salad followed by your choice of entrées: wild salmon, braised beef short ribs or a vegetarian option. Guests may choose selected wine pairings or purchase wine by the glass. Coffee and dessert, Greek yogurt panna cotta can be enjoyed at the table or taken to the theater to enjoy during the performance.

Gourmet boxed dinners are also available at the Café, including a late harvest Greek salad, falafel cakes, mezze box, roasted lamb gyro, grilled streak wrap, grilled vegetable moussaka, lemon oregano roasted chicken, chickpea hummus and pita, and basil hummus and pita. A specialty cocktail, blood orange sacrifice with prosecco, blood orange, pomegranate, and mint and dessert, baklava, will be available. Beer, white wine, specialty coffee drinks and other beverages will also be available for purchase, prior to the performance, at the Cafe and the Coffee Kiosk.

The sunset celebration on Thursday evenings is $40 per person and will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Private Founders Room. Prix fixe dinners on Friday and Saturday evenings are $70 ($90 with wine pairing) and are served at 6:15 p.m. in the Private Founders Room, before the 8:00 p.m. curtain time. Advance reservations are required for both and can be made when purchasing tickets online to a performance or by calling (310) 440-6033.
